

Please keep free speech on satellite airways. Removing instant traffic and weather from these stations is attacking free speech. The days of FM and AM radio domination are over. Satellite radio is radio for this new day.